Programme

We have designed the day for Appointed actuaries and their teams, NZSA members, industry bodies, regulators, and insurance executives and directors, to present current issues and challenges, outline obligations and working relationships across key areas, and explore how the industry and Appointed Actuaries can work effectively together to identify risk, support organisational solvency and capital positions, and meet best-practice standards in customer focus, conduct, and legislative compliance.

The day will feature:

- Updates from regulators on current regulatory priorities, expectations and including what they are seeking from Appointed Actuaries.
- Panel discussion from industry on the key challenges emerging within our sector.
- Interactive, practical sessions and panel discussions involving regulators, executive leaders and Appointed Actuaries.
- Networking opportunities with peers and industry contacts during morning, lunch, and afternoon tea breaks, followed by networking drinks.

Together, these sessions will explore the key challenges facing insurers and discuss practical, actionable solutions.

In 2026, the Forum will include a strong focus on the amendments to the Insurance (Prudential Supervision) Act and what these changes will mean in practice for licensed insurers. This will be a must-attend event for professionals working within New Zealand's insurance sector—including actuaries, executives, and directors.
