

Simon Botherway is Chair of the Financial Markets Authority Establishment Board, a member of the Securities Commission and a director of the Electricity Authority Establishment Board and Fisher & Paykel Appliances.

Simon has a B.Comm from Otago University and holds the Chartered Financial Analyst designation from the US-based CFA Institute. He has served on the Asia-Pacific Advocacy Committee for the CFA Institute and was President of the CGA Society of NZ. He also chaired the NZX's Asset Management Advisory Committee.

His background is in Investment Management, he is the former chair of Brook Asset Management a leading equities investment management company that he co-founded in 2002.