

General Insurance Seminar

We have a great line up of presenters for the 2017 General Insurance Seminar. For the first time, the seminar will also include concurrent Health sessions. Please join us for a fabulous day.

Speakers:

How actuaries can help solve society's biggest problems

Emily Mason, SIA
Cindy Cheung, KPMG

Political commentary

Barry Soper, Political journalist

Adapting to increasing climate risk

Dave Frame, VUW
Karl Armstrong, IAG
Dave Cull, Local Government NZ

Measuring and costing the burden of disease

Martin Tobias, Tobias + Cheung
Health and Public Sector
Consultants

Preventing patient harm to contain treatment injury costs

Nick Kendall, ACC

Industrialising analytics to generate better ROIs

Andrew Thomson, Quantum

NZ IFRS 17: first impressions from KPMG

Jamie Munro, Partner, Head of Insurance
Nick Moss, Director

Probabilistic model outputs, realistic disaster scenarios and potential losses from major perils in NZ

Prof Russell Blong, Aon Benfield

Monday 30 October 2017

Registrations from 8:30am
Seminar 9am – 6pm

Museum of New Zealand
Te Papa Tongarewa,
55 Cable Street,
Wellington

$260 per person

Register Now

Registrations close
Thursday 19 October